

Example Family Medicine Residency Program: Rotation Training Schedule

PYG-1	Weeks
Family Medicine (outpatient)	8
General Surgery	4
Emergency Medicine	4
Women's Health (ambulatory and inpatient)	4
Pediatrics	4
Internal Medicine (inpatient)	16
Radiology	2
Orthopedic Surgery (surgical specialty requirement)	4
Elective	4
Total Rotation Weeks + 2 weeks vacation = 52 weeks	50 Weeks
Other Training	Duration
Procedural Medicine	Continuous
Disease Prevention & Wellness	Continuous
Patient Safety & Quality Improvement	Continuous
Continuity of Care Clinic	1/2 day per week (150 visits)
Didactics	5 hours Per Week

PYG-2	Weeks
Family Medicine (outpatient)	4
Surgical Specialty (urology, ENT, ophthalmology)	8
Emergency Medicine	4
Women's Health (inpatient)	4
Pediatrics	4
Internal Medicine	8
Internal Medicine - Critical Care/ICU	4
Psychiatry/Behavioral Health	8
Electives	6
Total Rotation Weeks + 2 weeks vacation = 52 weeks	50 weeks
Other Training	Duration
Procedural Medicine	Continuous
Disease Prevention & Wellness	Continuous
Patient Safety & Quality Improvement	Continuous
Continuity of Care Clinic	1 day per week (650 min. visits)
Didactics	5 hours Per Week

PYG-3	Weeks
Surgical Specialty (urology, ENT, ophthalmology)	4
Women's Health (inpatient)	6
Internal Medicine	8
Geriatrics/Home Care/Hospice	4
Pediatrics	4
Sports Medicine	2
Community Medicine or Family Medicine	2
Health Systems Management	4
Electives	16
Total Rotation Weeks + 2 weeks vacation = 52 weeks	50 Weeks
Other Training	Duration
Procedural Medicine	Continuous
Disease Prevention & Wellness	Continuous
Patient Safety & Quality Improvement	Continuous
Continuity of Care Clinic	1.5 days per week (1,650 visits after 3 yrs).
Didactics	5 hours Per Week

*This is an example only and demonstrates how the Trios Health residency program will ensure that all residents meet AOA requirements.