

Internal Medicine Residency Clinical Rotation Schedule Example Trios Health

PGY-1
Block	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13
Rotation Name	General Internal Medicine	Nephrology	General Internal Medicine	Cardiology	General Internal Medicine	Procedural Med./VAC	ICU	General Internal Medicine	Infectious Disease	General Internal Medicine	Elective/VAC	Primary Care	General Internal Medicine
PGY-2
Block	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13
Rotation Name	General Internal Medicine	Endo	Night float	Hematology/Oncology	Night Float	ER	ICU	Nephrology/VAC	General Internal Medicine	GI	General Internal Medicine	Elect/VAC	General Internal Medicine
PGY-3
Block	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13
Rotation Name	General Internal Medicine	Cardiology	General Internal Medicine	Neurology	General Internal Medicine	Pulm	ICU	General Internal Medicine	Primary Care/VAC	Geriatrics/VAC	Night Float	General Internal Medicine	Rheum
Notes	Residents complete 1/2 a day of clinic at the ambulatory setting each week during the entire training year. VAC = Vacation. Hospitalist = Wards. Primary includes 2 weeks of outpatient internal medicine and 2 weeks of women's health. This is an example only to demonstrate how residents meet ACGME requirements.
Elective Examples:	Dermatology, Psychiatry, Sleep Medicine, Palliative Medicine, Ophthalmology, Orthopedics, Rehabilitation Medicine, Allergy/Immunology, Gynecology, and Otorhinolaryngology

KEY: VAC = Scheduled in Vacation
General Internal Medicine = Inpatient Internal Medicine